

RUNES

Wunjo, Wynn or W

Fehu, Feo, Peoh or P

Uruz, Ur or U

thurisaz, dorn,
Thorn or Th

Ansuz, As or Ansure

Raidho, Rit, Radh or R

Kenaz, Kan, Ken or K

Hagalaz, Hagall or H

Sowulo, Sigil or S

Isa, Is or I

Jera, Jara or Ger

Naudhiz, Not, Nyd or N

Teiwaz, Tyr, Tewaz or T

Berkana, Bar, Ba Beorc or B

Laguz, Lagu or L

Elhaz, Eiwaz or Eloh

Yr or Irr

Eihwaz, Eoh, Eh or E

Othala, Odal, Othall or O

Gebo or G

Perdhro, Peorth or P

Gebo

Daeg, Dagaz or D

Page Numbers in green (P00)

The Quest Tarot is published by Llewellyn Worldwide Publishing.
www.Llewellyn.com

Order the book and deck or accessories
from:

www.questtarot.com

Wunjo, Wynn or W This rune means joy. For some this can be an elusive state of being. Joy is achieved by putting your self into a state of balance. Letting yourself be in harmony with yourself.

Fehu, Feo, Peoh or P This rune represents the power to create wealth and prosperity on the physical plane. It can also mean a payment about to be made. Fehu is all about humankind taking control of the natural process.

Uruz, Ur or U When you get this rune it represents inner strength and healing. This power is never controlled. The power of Uruz can help bring success that includes others.

Thurisaz, Dorn, Thorn or Th This rune can indicate a sudden change of events. News from afar may be arriving soon. Things are about to change. The three sides of the rune shape represent three states of our life; mind, body, spirit.

Ansuz, As or Ansure Considered the God Rune this special symbol carries with it the divine breath of force. No matter how hard things get this rune remains strong and stable. This rune talks of the divine ancient force.

Raidho, Rit, Radh or R This wheel is about ritual turning. The movement of this circle focuses energy into a powerful beam that enables us to be in the perfect situation at the perfect time.

Kenaz, Kan, Ken or K This rune is passion and illumination. It is the channeling of desire into a new form. Consider this rune as a driving force in the creation of life itself. Your relationships both romantic or business will go well.

Hagalaz, Hagall or H This rune takes many elements from the past and forms them into something new and solid in the now. This rune's influence does not come from the seekers' wants or desires.

Sowulo, Sigil or S This rune represents the strength of the sun. It is a life bringer. The sun is the grand illuminator bringing its bright rays into the dark cracks. This rune symbol is direct and straightforward in its approach.

Isa, Is or I Literally this rune means "ice." In winter times we retreat to warmer, safer places. Just like the iceberg, what is seen on the surface is just a small part of what lies beneath. Ice is like a gemstone but only for a time.

Jera, Jara or Ger, The Wheel of Fortune Card. The meaning of this rune is "year" or "season." This is the representation of a cycle; its four-sided form with a pole going through it, shows the precision of the four seasons.

Naudhiz, Not, Nyd or N The words need and necessity are crossed on this rune. The crossed lines are those of two pieces of kindling wood. This wood starts the fire. It is the beginning of the knowledge of how to make fire.

Teiwaz, Tyr or Tewax or T This rune represents the personal sacrifices necessary to move forward toward a successful life. You will need to make an oblation, either to yourself or to another in order to proceed.

Berkana, Bar, Ba, Beorc or B The symbol on the rune actually represents the breasts of the Earth Mother. The time is one when the land is barren and icy. It is a time of retreat before new beginnings have a chance.

Laguz, Lagu or L Flowing water is deeply connected to this rune. Think of the movement of the tides. They go in and out and in again. This rune is about the natural flow of energy in life. Like water, energy will move around.

Elhaz Eiwaz or Eloh This mighty rune repels evil simply by its presence. It is a strong weapon against evil and protects its holder. This rune will give protection to the holder as well as his property. You gain support.

Yr or Irr This rune represents the wrong path in life. When this rune shows up it means that you are about to make an error. In your dealings you will be "off the mark." It can mean missed objectives. You may be the victim.

Eihwaz, Eoh, Eh or E This rune actually means "horse." Imagine its shape as linking different levels of reality. This is the conduit on which you can travel between degrees of joy and happiness. Journey on the earth is charged with peril.

Othala, Odal, Othal or O In this place you find your hearts desire secure from the outside world. By going to this special place you find your thoughts protected from the outside world. Take time here to find the magical truth.

Gebo or G This rune actually means "the gift." Just as the sun gives its life giving rays as a gift to the earth, so does this rune signify the way the universe will continually give to us just what we need. Like the sun, this rune is full of energy.

Perdhro, Peorth or P Possibly the closest meaning for this rune is "secret." It refers to the mysteries of our life that we have yet to be revealed to us. This rune has a strong connection with divination and fortune telling.

Gebo This is an addition form of the rune Gebo. As you may know, the runes take many forms throughout history. This rune actually means "the gift." Just as the sun gives its life giving rays as a gift to the earth.

Daeg, Dagaz, or D It represents the end of one cycle and the beginning of a new one. It is a rune that means change. A multiphased mirror to the Fool card. A bridge to a new reality.